

POSITION TITLE: SANITARIAN VI, REGISTERED

POSITION DESCRIPTION: The MD Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, Infectious Disease and Environmental Health Administration (IDEHA) is seeking a Sanitarian IV, Registered serving as the Retail Food Rating Officer in the Office of Food Protection and Consumer Health Services. This position is responsible for reviewing, inspecting, and evaluating local food inspection programs for compliance to State codes and standards in order to promote public health. It is responsible for standardizing local Standardization Officers and the OFPCHS staff as required. It provides leadership, oversight, and training to local jurisdictions, the OFPCHS staff and the food industry. This position is required to conduct plan reviews for new and/or remodeled food facilities and may also be expected to supervise other professional staff in the future. This position also performs food processing plant inspections. Qualified candidates are determined by the Maryland State Board of Environmental Sanitarians under the certificate of eligibility requirements for Environmental Sanitarians and must possess a current license as a Registered Environmental Sanitarian from the Maryland State Board of Environmental Sanitarians as well as six years of environmental health work experience in the promotion, control, and maintenance of environmental health, two years of which must have involved direction of an environmental control project and/or supervision of positions performing environmental health work. For the complete job announcement visit the DHMH website at www.dhmh.state.md.us/ohr. To apply for this position submit a the MD State application form MS-100 (Available for download from the DHMH website) by no later than March 15, 2010 to:

DHMH Recruitment and Selection
201 W. Preston St, Room 114-B
Baltimore, MD 21201